

MANGIA, BEVI E IMPARA L'ITALIANO!

Eat, drink and learn Italian!

View of Positano, Amalfi Coast

This class is designed for anyone who wants to learn the basics of Italian and explore the culture, the food, the wine, and the beautiful nuances of a poetic language. A fun way to spend a Wednesday evening and get ready for the trip you've always wanted to take while sipping delightful Narcisi wine! Presentations, pictures and short movie clips will be included in each class. Participation encouraged since it is a key aspect in the learning process. There will be minimal "homework" assigned but the class in general will be relaxed and fun.

No prior knowledge is required

Class will have no more than 15-20 participants and will meet every Wednesday at 6:00pm for a 10 week period.

Classes start Wednesday, January 13, 2016

Classes will be taught by our own General Manager, Roberto Smiraglio.

Roberto is an Italian native and established instructor, interpreter and translator in the Pittsburgh area. He has taught numerous individual and group classes. Some of his latest work includes interpreting at several press conferences for the Vatican City committee introducing the magnificent "Vatican Splendors" exhibit at the John Heinz History Center Museum .
